'The LAWW Watchdog Society' is overjoyed to bring you the beloved 'Oscar McFoisy'

'Doggone Two-Faced Award' And it goes to...

The Conservative Government of Canada! ...for presenting bogus bills (regulations and laws) to Canadians. The government is just like Oscar McFoisy, ornery, badly-behaved and a big disgrace to the Aboriginal race!

The Conservative Government has forced the 'Omnibus Bill' onto Canadians. The bill is hundreds of pages long, very complicated and unlikely to be read by anyone but a lawyer or a psychopath. It is the lowest form of legislation presentation known in the free world. Its integrity is on par with the mindset of a pick-pocket. It makes regulations that negatively affect all Canadians. Amongst many other rules it makes it next to impossible for First Nation people to vote. The government refuses to allow polling stations on reserves, or 'Indian Cards' for identification. The legislation is next to impossible to challenge by honest people. Conservatives know that most first nations people will not vote Conservative and this is their way of preventing Canadians from voting for someone else. The Conservative government has become synonymous with willful betrayal, unabashed deceit, blatant mischief, unbearable fibs and unwavering cheekiness. Canadians deserve better! Some people claim it's a shame to put a lovable low down, miserable, underhanded, bottom feeding poacher like Oscar in the same class as the Conservative government when we know that Oscar is held in much higher regard!

'Doggone Ice-cold Award' And it goes to...
The Conservative Government of Canada!

For not only sleeping through Global Change but for one of it's members disgusting behaviour in 'Question Period'. It made one Conservative MP stop snoring, it caused the speaker of the house to stutter and not surprisingly it looked like the whole Conservative caucus was about to cross the floor in embarrassment.

Yes, while many Innu people were eating out of the town dump, the Environment Minister ignored the issue, picked up a newspaper during questioning of the incident and flipped to the comic section! Everyone was surprised the Minister didn't light up a smoke, reach for an ashtray and give everyone the third finger Conservative salute! Good Lord! Never before have Canadians seen such an obvious slight to the Innu people, many of which were not able to keep up with the horrendous costs of food in the far north. The Conservative Minister was not only naughty but arrogant to those Canadians who thought they would be represented with honour. It almost made the Northern lights go out! What was the Minister thinking? Good grief!! It was enough to shame a polar bear!!! It was so embarrassing even the permafrost starting to heat up!!!! The incident was so notorious the narwhals around Rankin Inlet began to gather!!!!!! The musk ox were so frightened they formed a circle thinking the Conservatives might attack!!!!!! A snowy owl was found in California three days later!!!!!! Several ptarmigan were so stunned they flew to Afghanistan; safer they said!!!!!! All of this because an other-wise good Northern Minister lost it for a few minutes.

'Doggone Pick-A-Pocket Award' And it goes to...
The Conservative Government of Canada!

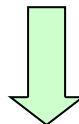

for lying to Canadians, and cheating our soldiers.

Like Oscar McFoisy the Conservatives should be cited for arrogance, bad behaviour and under-handed pocket picking.

Yes, the dreaded fuddy-duddy Minister of Defense stole back over 1.1 billion dollars budgeted to help returning soldiers deal with injuries of war; help with counseling, medical services and some place to go. Getting shot at for being dragged into a killers war that was supposed to be 'peacekeeping only' is not like a trip to Disneyland. It imbeds awful experiences that will haunt the memories of young men and women for the rest of their lives. To add fuel to the fire he and the Prime Minister closed most of the veteran's offices making it almost impossible to get help. To add more fuel to the fire, many soldiers have had to sue the government to receive the support they were promised while in uniform. 'Jeepers Creepers, Holy cow and Golly' are not words strong enough to describe what these men have done to our brothers, sisters, sons and daughters after they've fought for our freedom. Ghastly, appalling and vile might be strong enough! What is the matter with the Conservative Government? Do they think forming a piano band and singing 'take me home where I belong' is enough to award Canadian soldiers for risking their lives? War is dangerous and loud enough without returning home and listening to someone sing in one key and play in another. Someone should call the police- wait a minute, Minister Dud was the police! and the Prime Minister thinks he still is!

'Doggone Two-Faced Award' (part two) And it goes to...
The Conservative Government of Canada!

for sending our soldiers to war.

Like any bully, The Conservative Government should be arrested for doing everything it can to bring terrorism to Canada. Why doesn't it just focus on bringing Veterans, Single moms, Seniors, First Nations and many middle class people out of poverty?

Never in Canada's history have young men and women played any role but peacekeeping in conflicts around the world. Now our soldiers are killing and being killed. Canada has neglected child poverty and the Prime Minister is throwing our money to thugs in foreign countries who will shove every dollar into their pockets. Our fearless leader, when shaking Putin's hand at a G8 meeting told him to get out of the Ukraine. Putin, (whack job or not) is the most dangerous man on the planet so isn't speaking that way to a fruitcake the quickest way to light the fuse on a Moscow Missile. That gesture must have driven several million people into a laughing hysteria. It's a good thing they got the Prime Minister's getaway car started.

Isn't giving Putin the finger a lot like bombing the crap out of the middle east. Wouldn't Canada be at the top of the list for retribution? That way Putin and militant religious insurgents could take turns getting even!

The Conservative Government of Canada!

For thinking it can rip off Canadians whenever it wants, especially when the fish are running or when no one is looking.

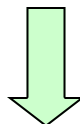

Like many other bottom feeders, he should have been arrested for acting like a carp

There's nothing wrong with taking a day off occasionally and maybe getting the fishing rod out and firing up the government helicopter for a few days fishing at your friends resort. There's nothing wrong with that unless you are a high profile and dishonest Conservative Minister. Who else would a Conservative government promote to Minister of Justice than a well known cheater who gets caught. Going on fishing trips that cost the taxpayer tens of thousands of dollars ought to be the quickest way to be kicked out of government. Not this Minister though, now he's making laws that will harm sex workers, close safe-injection sites, stop people from growing their own medicines, prevent people from dying with dignity. The government also tried to appoint a man to the supreme court who was unqualified then bad mouthed the Supreme Court of Canada for putting a stop to it. They did all that while committing misogyny with women justices. The Conservatives have lost all of the Supreme Court cases that were designed to harm Canadians. Will The Justice minister get yet another promotion? With his record wouldn't he be a shoe-in for a position as a Vatican priest? Couldn't he just be promoted to the position of Court gesture? Wait a minute, isn't that's what he was when the Conservatives were elected or was he just a knot-head? Why do Canadians always loose their rights when the Conservative government writes up legislation. Don't they like us?

'Doggone Dumbunney Award' and it goes to Liberal Leader for being immature, unqualified and for having a killer smile.

Yes, smile and all, Justin is just way too early to be running for Prime Minister of the country. Sure he's got that knockout punch, a substantially longer, perhaps unfair reach and a Zombie gaze when he realizes he might get one in the prunes if he lead s too much with his zipper. Is his judgment sound? If so, what in the name of Cassias Clay is he doing with floor-crossers. He has already stung Canadians like a bumble bee by allowing Adam the serpent and Eve to slither into the Liberal party. She was fired for being a nuisance and attempting to use extortion, cuteness and flirting for free car washes. She doesn't play by the rules; she appears deceitful and has been bashing the liberal government for a long time. Is she genuine, dishonest or just an opportunist. Every liberal Canadian must feel like they got a rabbit punch when she turned up. Will Justin be inviting any of the disgraced senate crowd to come over to the party as well? Has he blown a chance to be Canada's first snowboarding Prime Minister? Will Mary Jane be on the agenda? If he's elected who's bringing the popcorn?

Big Fibber Award and it goes to

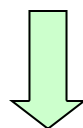

The Immigration Minister for shamelessly

saying things that are just not true. Surprisingly he was not arrested for continuously lying about how workers were paid and treated by him and the many employers hiding behind Canada's Temporary Foreign Worker Program.

Statistics Canada data, for nearly five months, had shown that tens of thousands of workers skilled in mining were looking for work in Canada. How was it possible for any government to claim that Canadian workers were not available? He lied about wages, living conditions, racism and anything else that needed to be lied about concerning workers in the program. Canadians ought to be ashamed of electing a man who seems to have the morals of Wiley the Coyote looking for a better roadrunner trap! Even a bed bug has more credibility! Anyone looking for 'What the Immigration Minister doesn't want you to know about Canada's Temporary Foreign Worker Program' will be shocked to see a factual report of how Conservatives treat Canadians and others when no one is looking. It is so unbelievable that such a handsome and chunky young man can be so deceitful. If Canadians saw this charismatic man stepping on a spider they would probably say—'Gee Whiz, that guy must be a Conservative! He certainly is a big disgrace to every race when his boomerangs won't come back! Do Immigration Ministers get a tip for setting up systems that cheat immigration and Canadian workers?

'Doggone Two-faced Climate Award' and it goes to the Conservative Government again for wanting Canadians and other spirit-bears to follow the oil spills to market!

Doggone Oscar Award

Yes, the Conservative Government has been crapping on efforts to protect our environment. It doesn't seem to give a nob about the certainty of oil spills in areas like British Columbia's Coast where Nature is unparalleled. The Conservative leader seems to be happier memorizing the lyrics to the Beatle songs than supporting alternate forms of energy. He seems to like the idea that lots more Canadians could be heating their homes with methane that fracks into the kitchen sink. He fired some of Canada's best environmental scientists after spending millions on a fake G8 lake. Canada has some very needy single mom's and children and minimum wages that renders them and others to desperation. Canadians want no more billion dollar summit meetings, hand shakes with Putin or questions like, "Where's the four billion dollars the auto makers were supposed to pony up"? And what's this about him single-handedly telling the Chinese he will allow them to sue us if they don't like our resource ownership rules?" Does he get a tip for that? Why is he giving Canada away and why aren't we hiring hundreds of thousands of people to bring sun and wind power? Does he know the lyrics to 'Everyone's got something to hide except me and my monkey'?

'Doggone Two-faced Terrorist Award' (Part four) and it goes to the Conservative Government for taking another stab at putting peaceful pipeline and First Nation Protesters in Jail at will!!

Doggone Oscar Award

The Conservative Government has finally made it to the bottom of the sewage pond. They found a way to destroy peaceful protesters. They are going to do it by including Canadians as terrorists, those who dare to oppose their government legislation'. It means they can lawfully arrest and jail ordinary Canadians for trying to stop pipelines slithering through beautiful west coast forests, pristine lakes, streams and inlets, They can jail Canadians for wanting to oppose oil sands projects in favour of sun and wind power. They want to incarcerate those who are against environmental carnage when they should be conducting undercover surveillance on out-of-key government musicians! It's all there in black and white. Elizabeth from the Green party picked it up and so did Tom Mulcair, the NDP leader. They both see clearly the lengths this government will go to harm law-abiding citizens. Legislation is already in place to deal with religious nut cases, terrorists like the ones the Conservative government invited to Canada when they decided to bomb the middle east. It's all about revenge! There's already enough terrorist laws. The new ones are made for Canadians who don't want the government to pollute the Land Air, Water, and Wildlife of our country. The new laws are either unconstitutional, dictatorial, authoritarian, or Fascist. If Mussolini were still alive he would probably be appointed to the senate! If a Card-carrying Nazi came looking for gainful employment he would probably find it in Ottawa! Good Grief!! What is wrong with these Conservative morons and why are they still in power?

'Doggone Oops Award' and it goes to the Liberal Party of Canada. for having the prunes to gather up so many advisors, and old fogies who were in power when the Charbonneau Commission found the Liberal Party ripe with graft, corruption and fraud.

Doggone Oscar Award

Yes, when Canadians voted for anyone but liberals the last time they were in power it was because the degree of government fraud and corruption was rampant. Is the new Liberal Party leader strong enough to keep his candidates on the straight and narrow. The young new leader has recently supported the 'Terrorist Bill' legislation that will enable the Conservative Government to arrest ordinary Canadians who oppose destructive pipelines, oil-sands and support First Nations for protecting their land and resources. Does he care that Canadian resources are systematically being given away to foreign powers and that many Canadians will want to protest peacefully? Is the New Liberal leader too naive to catch on to what the Conservatives are doing to Canadians under the new terrorist legislation? Does he not get it? Who is he gleaning his advice from, a goalie who doesn't keep the puck out anymore, and an ex prime minister, family friend still trying to get the hang of at least one of the Canadian official languages? Good Grief! Holy Cow and Jeepers Creepers. Isn't it time to consider a political party that will work for regular Canadians for things like environmental protection, daycare, higher minimum wage, no tax give-away to wealthy, help for single mom's, help for all struggling Canadians, rolling back retirement Age, health care funding and value added resource extraction. Surely, if there is a party like that isn't it time to bring it to power before we loose all our rights to the Conservative Party?

Things to know

Most non-voters and many ordinary voters know little about politics. They won't read anything about it unless it is scandalous or eye catching like Oscar McFoisy. For every 50 people who read political messages, 500 will read an 'Oscar Award'. (just saying)!

1. Our 'Oscar Awards' are designed to inform voters of the unacceptable behaviour of the present Conservative government and the inexperience of the leader and others of the Federal Liberals. The Oscar Awards are tasteful, court proof, cute, and tongue in cheeky.
